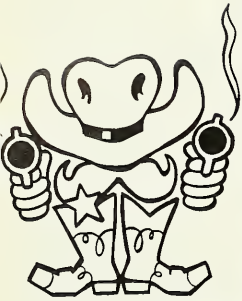
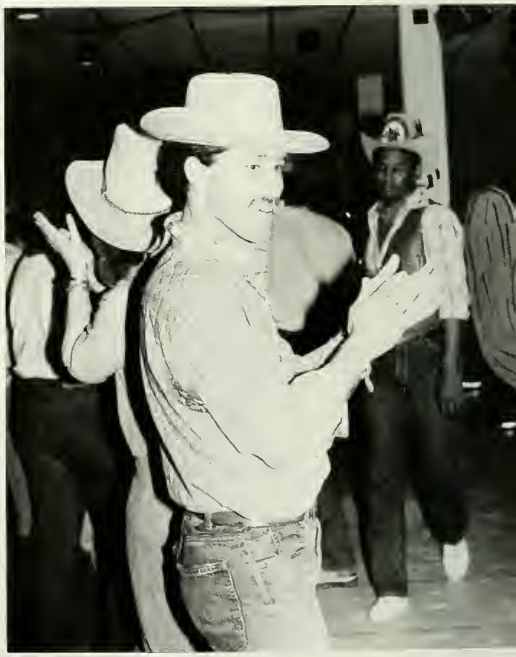
FOR DORMS!

The 1984 year brought new and exciting highlights to the Augusta College campus. One of these highlights was the declaration of A.C.'s purchase of the old Forest Hills V.A. medical building. The Augusta College Foundation and the Board of Regents of the University system of Georgia joined with the General Services Administration to buy the 26.5 acre area, on March 26.

Several plans are being considered for the facility. President Christenberry stated in a press conference held at the college that the college plans to "develop a continuing education department." Other plans for the area will include a housing center for 300 to 400 students. This dorm will increase A.C.'s enrollment to include out-of-town transfers as well as out-of-town athletes. Another plan for the land will be to renovate the adjoining land for a golf course and joining parking lot to be located near the Pine Needle Road area.

The actual purchase price for the land and the building was $450,000. Early appraisal of the land illustrated that $2 million to $4 million would be needed for renovation and development. Dr. Christenberry, like all of the student body, administration and faculty, anxiously awaits the opening of this new addition to the campus, which Dr. Christenberry hopes to be as soon as fall quarter of 1985.



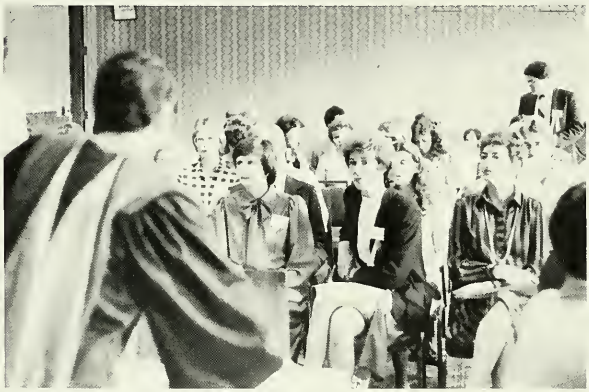


Friday, April 27th brought the 5th annual A.C. Hoedown, sponsored by the student union, held in the C.A.C. This year's Hoedown featured good ole' foot-stompin' contemporary country/western music by the Barkley Brothers Band, delicious barbecue catered by Sconyers, and all the Old Style brew that all the country folk could guzzle. Students enjoyed the evening of eating, dancing, and drinking til the wee hours of the mornin'!

Yee-haa!!

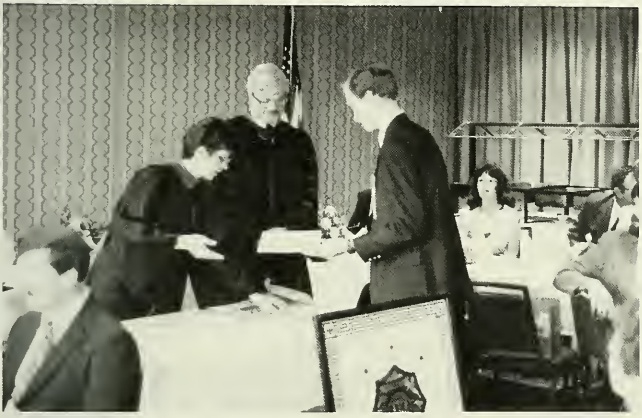
HOEDOWN

PHI KAPPA PHI.

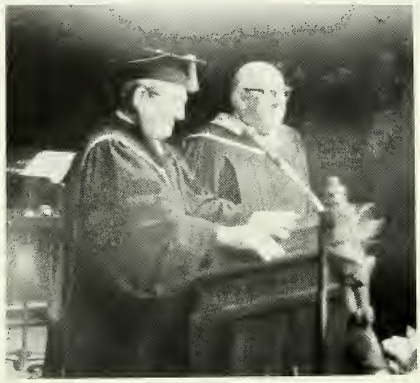


Twenty-four of Augusta College's most academically prestigious students were inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, a national collegiate honor society, on Friday, May 4, 1984. The banquet was held to honor the students in the top ten percent of the Senior class, and the top five-percent of the Junior class. In addition, these students must also maintain a grade point average of 3.5 or better.

Each year, Phi Kappa Phi elects one outstanding faculty member as an honorary member of the society. Dr. Helen Callahan of the History department was chosen this year. Congratulations are extended to these students for their superior academic achievements.



Honors Convocation



The stars were bright and shining as Keith Cowling, Terence F. Wharton, and over sixty students were honored on May 4 at the 1984 Augusta College Honors Convocation.

Keith Cowling received the college's Outstanding Faculty award, and Terence F. Wharton was presented as the recipient of the distinguished Louis K. Bell Research Award.

Scholastic Achievement Awards were received by the following students. (Seniors) William Wansley, Steve Hansen, Susan Zeigler, and Donna Wasden; (Juniors) Debra Street, Cynthia Hughes, Brandon McGahee, and Terrance Baldowski; (Sophomores) Elizabeth Kemple, Laura Tadlock, Laura Jackson, and Tammy Kosydar; (Freshmen) Georgia Moore, David Griffin, Ronald Singletary, and Ann Sanford.

Included in the awards given, nineteen students were honored in the School of Arts and Sciences, nine in the School of Business Administration, and four in the School of Education. Twenty-four students were inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, the national honor society for academic excellence, and fifteen students were named members of the 1984 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The 1983-84 White Columns staff consisted of only five members, but we still had a productive year. Working on the book kept us busy, but we still took time to attend an exciting workshop in Atlanta. We had a great time putting this volume together and hope that you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed making it. Our staff looks forward to working on this year's book.

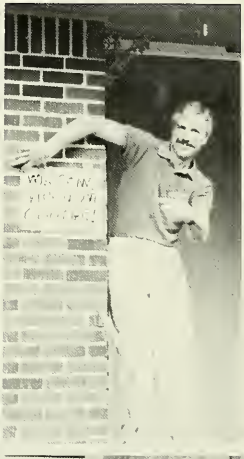
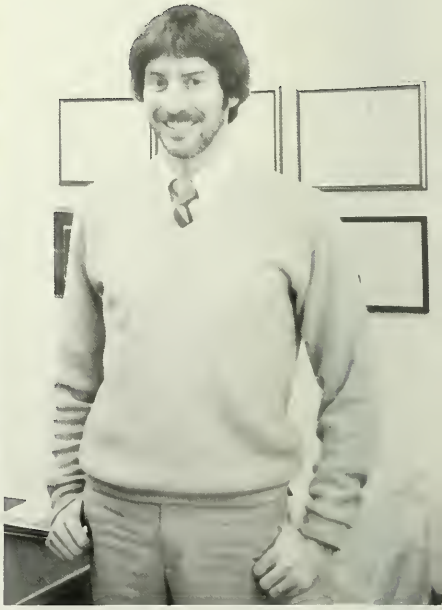
WHITE COLUMNS



Bell Ringer

The Bell Ringer newspaper staff, pictured not too busy here, deserved a break from all their hard work and headaches this year. It was hard to meet those deadlines, but with the joint efforts of the dedicated editors and hard-working staff members, we students were always confident of the papers in those boxes on the specific dates.

The editors and staff of this year's paper served the A.C. community well. Tricia Blount served as Editor-In-Chief for the Fall and Winter quarters. In the Spring quarter, Bruce Willig took over as the new Editor. The staff and sponsor, Jim Garvey, devoted many hours making those interesting and informative articles for the student body, faculty, and administration.



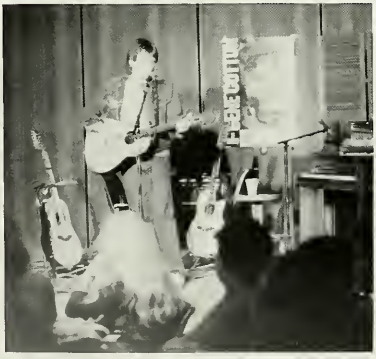
Black Student Union

Black Student Union is always busy with different activities, such as sponsoring guest speakers. A.C.'s own Lillie Jugurtha spoke during one of the distinguished black speaker series. Black Student Union also had a tree planting ceremony in front of the C.A.C. in memory of Martin Luther King. B.S.U. is active not only on campus, but also within the community.

"Center Stage"

This year's Student Union brought many new and talented performers to Center Stage, the entertaining coffee-house atmosphere of the C.A.C. Many of these performers included Gene Cotten, Michael John, and Ed Jackman.

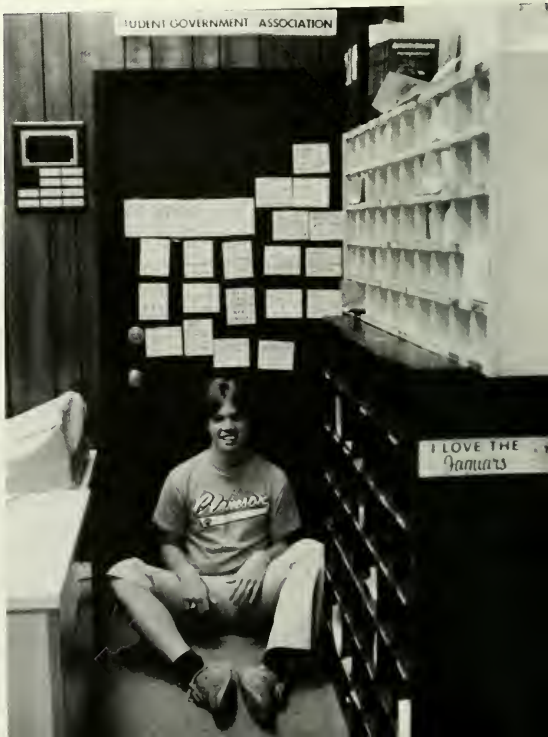
While the students and Faculty enjoyed the musical talents of the spotlight guests, Student Union provided an assortment of wine and cheese to enhance the evenings.



Homecoming '83

Homecoming is traditionally a time for A.C. alumni to join with present students in enjoying a week of festivities; this year was no exception. The week of activities culminated with the Homecoming games at the Civic Center, followed by the Homecoming Dance. I.C.C. provided a unique dance with a Mardi Gras atmosphere. Music was provided by Generation. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Queen and King. After the suspense was ended, Della Crews emerged as the Homecoming Queen and George Leverett was named Homecoming King.

Student Government Association



Student Government plays a major role in decision-making at Augusta College. Every student is affected by the actions of the S.G.A. To the left, the Executive officers are captured in carrying out the T.A.S.K. They are Craig Stanley (president), D. Faye Lyons (vice president), Nita Wiggins (secretary), and Ted Everett (treasurer).

William Wansley (Senate Chairman), and Beth Coursey (Senate Secretary), address the body as other members, representing academic departments, pose below.

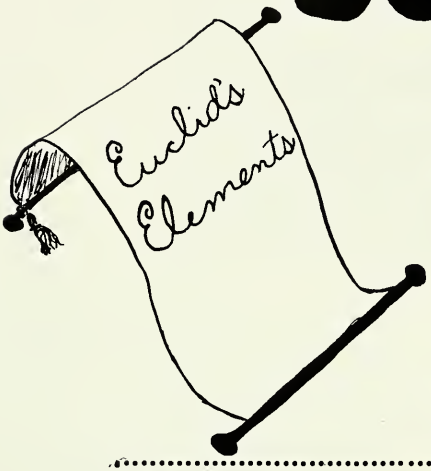
EUCLIDEAN SOCIETY



Spanish Club

¿Creías que le exigieron que estudiaras una lengua extranjera solamente para que sufrieras? Pues, ¡no es así! Se divierte mucho aprendiendo una lengua extranjera. No hay que conjugar verbos todo el tiempo. Los Amigos Hispanos es un club que ofrece varias actividades culturales para los alumnos de espanol. La presidente, Yolanda Robles, dice que durante la primavera celebraron el cinco de mayo y ofrecieron una clase de cocina para emostrar cómo preparar los platos típicos del mundo hispánico.

En junio de 1984 varios alumnos de español y francés — acompañados por los profesores Sandarg — pasaron dos semans en España y Francia donde tenían la oportunidad de practicas practicar el idioma.

También se ofrecen el francés y el aleman en Augusta College. Alpha Mu Gamma es una sociedad honoraria para los alumnos sobresalientes en los estudios de español, francés o alemán.

Did you ever think that the college forced you to take a foreign language just to make you suffer? Well, it is not exactly like that. Learning a foreign language can be fun. It's not always conjugating verbs. Los Amigos Hispanicas sponsors a variety of events to supplement the classroom. This year they sponsored a cooking class, demonstrating hispanic cooking techniques, celebrated cinco de mayo, closely related to our Independence Day, and sponsored a week-long trip to Spain. There is also a Foreign Language Society, Alpha Mu Gamma, for those students having excelled in two quarters of a foreign language. Besides Spanish, German and French is also taught here. Each one having various activities along with classroom work.

CULLUM SERIES...

JAPAN

The 1983-84 Cullum Series focused on Japanese culture through an extensive series of informative films, slide shows, presentations, and lectures by special guest speakers — a series which offered the Augusta College community the opportunity to learn a great deal about Japan, its people, and their lifestyles.

The Cullum Lecture Series is an educational program which enables interested persons to further their knowledge of foreign cultures, concentrating primarily on those nations which exert considerable influence on the international level. The series is open to all A.C. faculty and students, as well as to all Augusta residents.

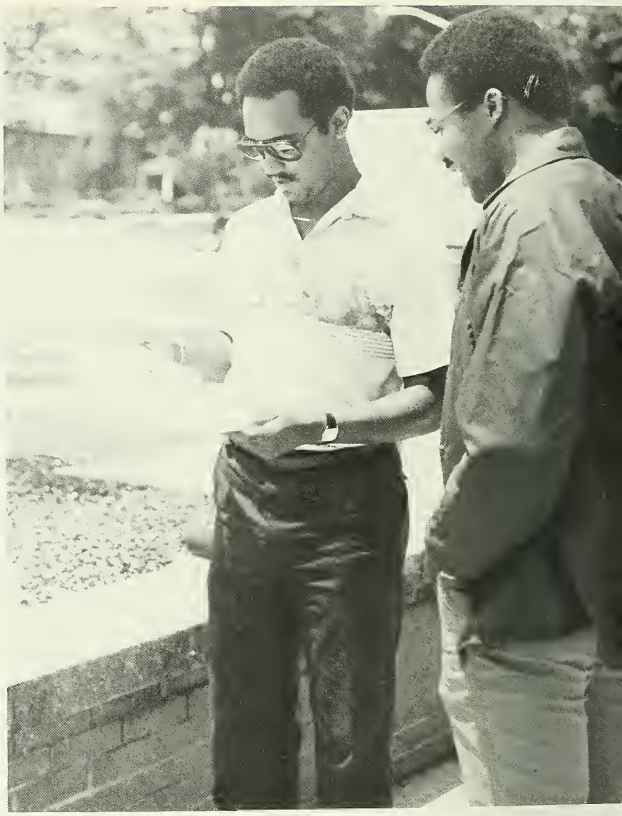
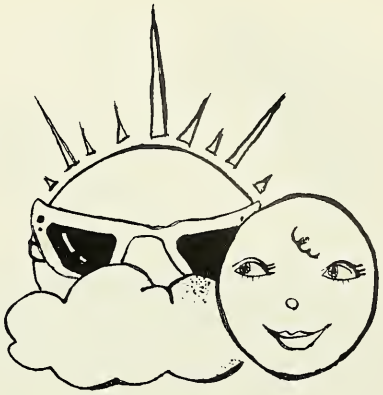
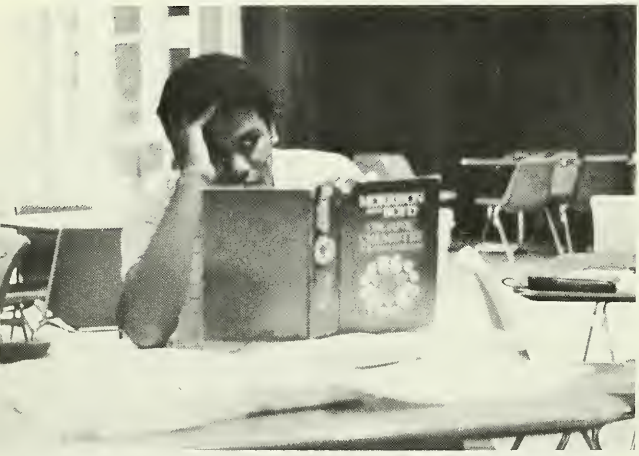
ECLIPSE DAY....

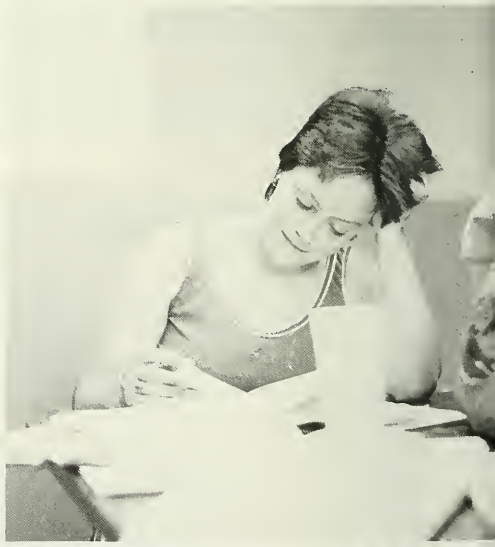
The sun gods and goddesses were out of luck for a while on May 30, 1984 due to a total eclipse of the heart, no sun. Even though Augusta was not in the direct path of the shadow, we did experience some darkening and cooler temperatures during the eclipse. The peak of the eclipse, when the moon fully covered the sun, happened in Augusta at approximately 12:26 p.m. Atlanta, however, was in the direct path of the umbra. This was the last major solar eclipse of this century. The next one will occur in the year 2017. For those of us hoping to be out of college by then, we had only this one chance to celebrate Eclipse Day at A.C. Most people gathered in front of the C.A.C. with their sunglasses; some teachers let their classes experience the eclipse while others played baseball with a ping-pong ball and tennis racket in honor of Augusta College's first annual Eclipse Day.

Fortunately, it is no longer necessary to sacrifice a virgin in order to dispell the eclipse and appease the god's anger — it's just as well!









"Trauma Time"

Final exams are drawing nearer;
It's trauma time.
Visions of F's are getting clearer;
It's trauma time.
All through my late night study, speed, no doze, and Brim,
I panic because it's trauma time.

Why did I wait so long to study or buy the book?
Cliff Notes have always been my buddy;
I'll take a look.

My eyes are road maps, and my nerves are shot to hell;
Let's get drunk because it's trauma time!

Sung to the tune of "Twilight Time"

"Cram It!"

You've played all quarter,
And you've let it slide.
Those books and projects
Have been pushed aside.
Now time is running out,
And there's no place to hide,
So cram it! Cram It!
Finals again! Oh, damn it!
Cram some more history.
Cram some more speech.
It doesn't matter —
Whatever they teach —
Just cram it! Cram It!

Sung to the tune of "Beat It"

Augusta College Alma Mater

Where sentinels once guarded
Thy armaments of yore,
Now aged oaks sublimely
Bespeak a lofty lore.
(Chorus)

CHORUS:
All hail, Augusta College
Our voices now we raise
To give thee, Alma Mater,
Our fervent love and praise.

And we, thy sons and daughters,
Who pass thy portals through,
Will keep thy inspiration
With honor high and true.
(Chorus)

Thy sword is now a plowshare,
And peace enshrines thy name;
The flag unfurled above thee
Adds glory to thy fame.
(Chorus)

What would future generations find if they were to return to Augusta College of 1983-84 via an H.G. Wellsian type of time machine? It was the famous year of George Orwell's novel which depicted the depersonalization of mankind and the ever watchful eye of Big Brother. During this school year, Augusta Mayor Ed McIntyre was found quilty of corruption in office and sentenced to five years in prison. Sheriff J.B. Dykes was also found guilty of malfeasance in office and sentenced to four years in prison. Ben Crenshaw, a Texan, won the 1984 Masters, somewhat compensating for Texas' 10-9 loss to Georgia in the '84 Cotton Bowl. Also in 1984, Georgia's first heart transplant operation was performed at University Hospital. Augusta College acquired property for the construction of dormitories. On the international and national levels, President Reagan signed a bill which raised the legal drinking age to 21. Shirley MacClaine finally won an Oscar for Terms of Endearment, 1984's best picture. The U.S.S.R. refused to participate in the Olympics, and New Orleans hosted the 1984 Louisiana World Exposition. Vanessa Williams was chosen the first black Miss America, and Geraldine Ferraro was selected as the first woman vice-presidential running mate. Breakdancing was the rage, and on the contemporary music scene it was Michael Jackson, Boy George and Culture Club, and the Eurythmics. All in all — it was an unforgettable year!

Augusta College was chartered in 1925 as the Junior College of Augusta. Fifty years later, A.C. administration, faculty, staff, alumni, and students celebrated half a century of educational progress. In preparation for this celebration, Dr. Cashin researched A.C.'s history and traced it to the Academy of Richmond County, one of our nation's oldest high schools. A.R.C. was founded in 1783, a date which should be shared by Augusta College since several other schools in Georgia use founding dates of institutions from which they originated.

Presently, the University of Georgia is considered Georgia's oldest institution of higher education, having been founded in 1785. The proposal to change A.C.'s founding date to 1783, two years prior to U.G.A.'s, was brought before the Board of Regents July 10th. Unfortunately, the Board rejected this proposal because U.G.A. is planning its 200th birthday celebration in 1985, and such a change in U.G.A.'s standing would detract from its celebration. President Christenberry stated in a press conference that we would use these two years to gather further evidence to support the proposal to change Augusta College's founding date to 1783. Meanwhile, we students anxiously await the certain upcoming 2 — birthday celebration here at Augusta College!

EDITOR'S NOTE:

On behalf of the staff, I thank all those people who helped in producing White Columns 1984. We expressly thank Mike Thomas for general errands (and there were many of them), Vicky Spratlin for a little of everything (sealing packages inside the post office after it closed), and Dr. May for assistance with copy ("Trauma Time" and "Cram It"). I personally thank my editorial staff for their dedication and productivity, particularly Valerie for all the times she took photographs, printed and developed them in one day to meet deadlines, those listed below for contributing artwork and photographs, and Keith Cowling for lettering and artwork.

Fellow students — enjoy your yearbook!

Sincerely,

Leonard Bates
